

Keep the Kidneys Well

Health Is Worth Saving, and Some Barre People Know How to Save It.

Many Barre people take their lives in their hands by neglecting the kidneys, when they know these organs need help. Sick kidneys are responsible for a vast amount of suffering and ill health, but there is no need to suffer nor to remain in danger, when all diseases and aches and pains due to weak kidneys can be quickly and permanently cured by the use of Doan's Kidney Pills. Here is a Barre citizen's recommendation:

Mrs. Della Stephens, 137 Seminary street, Barre, Vt., says: "I know from experience that Doan's Kidney Pills are a reliable remedy. My first trial of them dates back three or four years ago. Severe pains in my back caused me much of sufferings, and mornings, when I awoke, I was stiff and lame across the kidneys. A tired, languid feeling clung to me, I had headaches and dizzy spells and was also bothered a great deal by a kidney weakness. Good reports about Doan's Kidney Pills led me to try them. They help me from the start, and continued use relieved all my suffering."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-McLure Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States. Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

CHELSEA.

"The Pride of Huckleins Run" Was a Great Success.

The play, "The Pride of Huckleins Run," given at the opera house last Wednesday and Thursday evenings by the Chelsea dramatic company, was a decided success, as every part was well assigned and especially well played, each member of the company being deserving of special mention, as well as M. F. George, who had drilled them at the rehearsal. Thursday evening the house was packed to the doors and standing room was at a premium, and everyone present was delighted with the play and the manner in which it was staged. After the play Thursday evening, the company's second annual ball was held, the Chandler Music hall orchestra of Randolph, which furnished music for the play, also playing for the dance, in which about fifty couples participated, among them being some from Montpelier, Post Mills, West Fairlee, Washington, Williamstown, Tunbridge, Randolph and South Royalton. The drama was fine and the music was fine, and the receipts amounted to about $180.00. The company held the boards and will present their play at Williamstown Saturday evening of this week, where they should draw a full house, as both the play and the presentation of it are worthy of patronage.

Joseph May of Timbridge was in town on business Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Chamberlin went last Thursday to Bethel to spend a few days with friends and relatives.

Cecil Kent, who lives with Connel Davis on the east hill, is working during his school vacation for Edward O. Matten.

Mr. and Mrs. Hale W. Mattson were in Bradford recently as the guests of the latter's mother, Mrs. Mabel S. Morse.

Charles L. Denmore of Bethel spent Wednesday and Thursday of last week in town, the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Denmore.

Mrs. Lizzie Smith entertained as her guests a portion of last week, her daughter, her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Goodrich of Northfield.

Herbert Bover entertained as his guests a portion of last week, his brother, and sister, Ernest and Harriet Bover, respectively, of Randolph Center.

Miss Grace McAllister, who has taught a very successful term of school in the Albert S. Camp district, has completed her term and returned to her home in Washington.

Eugene McCoo, who lives on the George H. Hardy farm on the west hill, was seriously ill last week with tonsillitis and two of his children were also ill with the measles.

The high school closed its winter term Thursday, February 24, for a vacation until the 14 of March, and Miss Ruth E. King, the assistant principal, left Saturday to spend her vacation with friends in Massachusetts.

John Corlies, the veteran rural mail carrier on route No. 1, who by reason of illness was laid off for about two weeks, since which time he has been in Lowell, Mass., visiting friends for two weeks, returned Saturday evening.

Mrs. Roxanna S. Jones, who has spent the past four months at the home of her brother, Sheriff Frank E. Tracy of Montpelier, returned to her home here Saturday evening. During her absence her home on North Main street has been closed.

Constable Charles E. Goffrey, who last week had so far recovered from a severe attack of heart trouble as to enable him to get out of doors, contracted a cold and is again confined to his bed with heart trouble and other serious complications.

States Atty. Stanley C. Wilson left on an official trip Friday morning during which business called him to Montpelier, Wells River, Bradford and Woodville, N. H. Mrs. Wilson accompanied him and visited friends in the latter place. They returned Sunday evening.

Mrs. Munroe O. Coburn returned home Saturday evening, after having spent three months with her daughter in St. Albans, where she was called by reason of the serious illness of her daughter, who, her many friends here will be glad to learn, has recovered her usual health. During the absence of Mrs. Coburn, "Mum" has kept bachelor's hall.

NORTHFIELD.

Death of Charles Wright, Aged 67, Long-Time Resident of Town.

Charles Wright, aged 67 years, died early yesterday morning after a lingering illness due to gradual breaking up of the system. He is survived by his wife and one sister. He had lived in Northfield many years and was one of the best known residents of the town. He had been active in the order of Odd Fellows for many years and had held many offices in the gift of the various I. O. O. F. bodies. Funeral arrangements are not completed at this writing. Interment will be in the family lot in Elmwood.

A Concord Monitor item says: "The wife of Jimmie Turner, Dartmouth foot ball player and coach, has had him in court in Chicago for talking to her in the same way he addresses candidates in training for gridiron honor."

The school in the Lane district, taught by Miss Evelyn Perry, closed Thursday. Moulton Hatchelder received no marks during the term. Evelyn Martin was absent one day.

The Plainfield Military band will give its fourth entertainment of the series Wednesday evening, March 3. The entertainment will consist of concert work by the band, solo, duets and other specialties. W. J. Fisher of the Palace theatre of Montpelier has been secured by the committee to assist at the entertainment. The laughable farce, "Blundering Bill," is to be given.

Characters: Mr. Stanley, Forrest Walker; Mrs. Stanley, Kate Nisbet; Silke Stanley, Alice Hatchelder; Bill Green, B. H. Townsend; John Brown; Randolph Cutting.

Some sixty or seventy of the friends of Miss Alice Hinton met at the band hall Friday evening to assist her in celebrating her eighteenth birthday. The party was an entire surprise to Miss Hinton. The evening was pleasantly spent with games, and readings by Burnham Colby. An original poem was written for the occasion by Frank Jackson. Several gifts and a purse of money were presented Miss Hinton. It was also the birthday of Albert Moore of Montpelier and Clem Hatchelder of this place. Both were present. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served.

Mrs. Louise Nye Lombard, wife of Charles Lombard, died Sunday morning at two o'clock. Last Tuesday she was operated on for appendicitis. The conditions were very serious, and very little hope was maintained for her recovery.

Mrs. Lombard was twice married. Her first husband was George Nye of this town. Three children were born to them. Arch Nye of Barre, Will Nye of South Barre and Mrs. John Westover of South Barre, who survive her; also a sister, Mrs. Laura McCullis of Randolph. Some 25 years ago, she married Charles Lombard and has always lived in this town.

Mr. Lombard's family have the sincere sympathy of their friends in this bereavement. The funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock at the house.

Jerry M. Hutchinson seems quite likely to have the job of building a parsonage this year for the Congregational church in the Pond village in Brookfield. A committee from the church was here a few days ago to see Mr. Hutchinson, and the verdict is said to have been above, or stronger.

H. D. Casey, superintendent of our schools, recommends the extension of the high school course to four years and thinks a "proper addition built on to the front of the present structure (grad school building in our village) would improve its appearance, and provide rooms for present and future use."

The secretary of the Vermont Sunday School association, H. A. Duffee, is to be here on Thursday afternoon and evening of this week, March 3, and it is desired that all who are interested in the Sunday school work of the town shall meet him at the M. E. vestry at 2:30 p. m. and 7:30 p. m. of that day.

Daniel C. Townsend has long been known as a practical, sensible horse-trainer. At present he has only a colt of 10 months that is a good driver and worker. To an inquiry just made of him, he replied that it only properly worked he regards it better in the long run for the animal than to have three or four years of idleness.

The number of dogs licensed here last year was only 153. It is good to know this by official report, as it may have seemed at times to our villagers that there must have been at least 1,329 animals of the kind in the place. The dog fund in February, 1910, was $1,350.07. In February, 1909, it was $1,227.77. Hunters' licenses were issued to 144 residents at fifty cents each.

Every Woman can have two Servants

Just because woman's mission is "the home," doesn't mean that she should be a slave to housework. Every woman can have two servants—The Gold Dust Twins—to take away the drudgery.

Modernize your home with the use of Gold Dust. Gold Dust is a natural-born enemy of dirt, and is the greatest cleanser and labor-saver in existence. It does its work more quickly, more thoroughly, more economically than any other cleaner. Do not be misled by substitutes which claim all the virtues of Gold Dust. They never "make good". There is no substitute for Gold Dust—it stands without an equal among cleansers.

Do not use Soap, Naphtha, Borax, Soda, Ammonia or Kerosene with Gold Dust. Gold Dust has all desirable cleansing qualities in a perfectly harmless and lasting form. The Gold Dust Twins need no outside help.

SOUTH CABOT.

R. S. Hawkins is stopping at W. R. Tibbette's for a while.

F. G. Lamberton and C. R. Boudry are cutting and marking chair stock for George May.

C. B. Scribner had the misfortune to sprain his thumb quite badly the other day, landing logs.

Avery Atkins and wife of Hardwick are stopping at the home of his father, who has been in very poor health for a week.

The little three-year-old girl of Eugene Putman ran a sewing machine needle through her finger Friday afternoon. Her mother had to pull quite hard to get the needle out of the finger.

Miss Maggie Houghton, who has been very sick, was given a post card shower of 71 cards of best wishes last Monday, from her many friends and neighbors, and she wishes to thank all who so kindly remembered her.

Next Wednesday evening, March 2, will be the meeting of Alberta grange of Marshfield. It is hoped that all of the patrons will try to be out, as there is to be a program of reading, speaking and singing, also roll-call, and as each member's name is called he or she is expected to say something—either read a piece or have something to say for the good of the order. It is hoped some of the farmers will tell us what they think is the most profitable on which to raise to feed stock through the winter. Come and tell us what your experience is and help out the lecturer.

EAST CABOT.

George Drew was in Barre one day last week.

Charles Adams visited in Hardwick one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. William Barr were in Marshfield Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Wilson of Cabot visited at W. E. Abbott's over Sunday.

Miss Helen Miles is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Helen Wilson, of Danville.

Miss Gertrude Peck has returned home from Mary Fletcher hospital at Burlington, where she underwent a very successful operation for appendicitis.

Here John sighed, "How well do I remember those days and the first part I appeared in."

"And what was that?" the writer inquired.

"As I said before," replied John, "I was the presence of a good strong pair of lungs, and fortune favored me for the night after I joined, the dog died and I was cast for his part."

"You played the dog's part?" the writer exclaimed. "How was that possible?"

"Oh," said John rising, "all I had to do was to stand behind the scenes and bark like a dog."
